

Incoming President – Profile

Pat Brannigan has been a Councillor on Armagh City and District Council for thirty-one years. He was Vice Chairman of the council for a number of years. He became Chairman and later after Armagh regained its City Status he was elected Mayor.

He has been a Member of the Southern Education and Library Board for several terms and currently he is Chairperson of the Membership Committee and Vice Chair of the Schools and Services Committee.

He was a member of the Governing Body of Armagh College of Further Education for two terms. He was a member of the Local Government Staff Commission and also the Water Council.

He is a member of the ICBAN (Irish Central Border Area Network) and the Northern Ireland Local Government Association. He is currently a member of The Education Staff Commission.